COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an 8-hour class that aims to teach officers and investigators the skills necessary for effective interviewing and interrogation. The instructor will demonstrate a proven program that involves building rapport to obtain confessions.

This class is essential for all sworn personnel working in law enforcement. These techniques can be used for various situations, ranging from calls for service to complex, multiple-suspect investigations.

Topics:

- There is a difference between interview and interrogation
- 7 steps of an interview
- Lie detection
- 6 stages of an interrogation
- Video examples will be shown

INSTRUCTOR

Detective Vanayes Quezada

Vanayes is a detective working with the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department Specialized Investigations Division, Homicide Detail. He has served with the department for ten years, during which time he has worked on various investigative assignments, including Crimes Against Children's Detail and Homicide Detail. With over five years of experience in specialized investigations, Vanayes has completed the Sheriff's Department Academy Instructor Certification Course (AICC) and has been the lead instructor for the Interview and Interrogation course at the Sheriff's Department Advanced Officer Training facility. He has trained students from agencies all over California, and his expertise has led him to train law enforcement members and district attorneys nationwide.
