

California Narcotic Officers' Association

Courtroom Testimony for Law Enforcement:

Thursday, February 27, 2025

0800-1700

Rancho Cucamonga, CA

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Deputy District Attorneys Allison Fung, Evan Acker, and Angela Follen will conduct an extensive 8-hour course focused on the integral role of law enforcement in the courtroom. This comprehensive program will thoroughly address the various responsibilities that law enforcement officers have while on the witness stand, as well as those duties that extend beyond their testimony.

Participants can expect a highly interactive format that will engage them in practical scenarios and discussions. The course aims to equip law enforcement professionals with the skills and knowledge necessary to deliver clear, compelling, and credible testimony in court, ensuring they are well-prepared to handle the dynamics of legal proceedings. Officers will learn best practices for presenting evidence, responding to cross-examination, and collaborating effectively with legal teams, enhancing their overall performance in judicial settings.

Topics:

- Acting as the investigating officer
- Courtroom etiquette
- Being the expert
- Cross-examination
- Fielding questions from the judge
