

National Domestic Communications Assistance Center and NW3C present

The Internet: Investigations and Intelligence (Delivered Virtually)

A two-day course focused on collecting Internet-related evidence and criminal intelligence information. Topics will include OSINT collection tools, metadata, device geolocation, interacting with and serving legal process on electronic service providers, proxies, VPNs, and the Darknet.

* Course contains graphic content including profanity, and sexual and violent images *

June 27-28, 2024

8:00am - 4:30pm PDT

POC: Walter O'Neal

wwoneal@fbi.gov/(540) 361-4629

Registration

- ⇒ This course is FREE to attend, but you must be an NDCAC client.
- ⇒ Registration is completed through the NDCAC LE Portal. To obtain NDCAC LE Portal access, visit www.cjis.gov. For additional information on becoming an NDCAC client, see attached document.
- ⇒ Registration closes by June 12, 2024 (subject to change). Registration does not guarantee enrollment. You will be notified of enrollment status by June 13, 2024.

Questions: email askNDCAC@fbi.gov or call 855-306-3222