COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This three-day course provides a foundation for aspiring investigators and professional development for seasoned gang detectives. The course is hosted by Santa Ana Police Department's Gang Suppression and Gang Homicide Units. The instructors have extensive experience in gang related crimes.

All instructors are court recognized experts and will teach topics including the S.T.E.P Act (PC 186.22), documentation, intelligence gathering, interview and interrogation, gang informants, post arrest investigation, social media investigation, and gang expert testimony. Deputy District Attorneys currently assigned to the OCDA's Gang Unit will discuss legal theories, informants and discovery requirements.

At the conclusion of this course, students will be better equipped to investigate gang crimes from the initial incident to the expert testimony.

TOTAL FEES:

$250.00 cash or check only (Payable to the "City of Santa Ana", mail to Santa Ana Police Department, 60 Civic Center Plaza, Attn: Training, Santa Ana, CA. 92701).
