

PEACE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY PRESENTS:

Unmasking Digital Deceit: Hands-On Investigation of “Pig Butchering” Romance Scams (Day Two)

Wednesday, March 27, 2024

Norwalk area, Los Angeles County, California

0730- Registration and Continental Breakfast / 0800-1630 – Seminar

In a digitally connected world, the rise of a romance scam known to criminals as “Pig Butchering” has become an alarming epidemic. There is an urgent need for awareness, education and investigative experience.

In this hands-on course for investigators, you will learn from experts:

- How to investigate online romance scams, utilizing open-sourced internet tools to analyze malicious websites.
- Preservation of digital evidence collected during an internet investigation.
- Tracing cryptocurrency transactions, utilizing popular industry tools, such as Reactor by Chainalysis.
- Proper seizure of cryptocurrency and establishment of an agency-controlled cryptocurrency wallet.
- Seizure and search warrant preparation for effective seizures.

This course is designed for investigators who handle cases and write and serve search warrants. Hands-on computer work will enable you to handle cases from beginning to end. You are highly encouraged to attend Day One also, as this advanced Day Two course builds on lessons learned in Day One.

(See Day One flyer, and also attend the highly recommended: “Unmasking Digital Deceit: Prevention and Investigation of ‘Pig Butchering’ Romance Scams.” Tues, March 26, 2024, Azusa, L.A.Co., Calif..)

Instructors:

- * Tony Moore, Investigator, Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department, Fraud & Cyber Crimes Bureau
- * Mike Parker, Ctr, USDOJ International Criminal Investigative Training Assistance Program (ICITAP)
- * Chainalysis Government Solutions and Binance Investigations Teams.
