Two-Day Street Gang Investigations

Date: May 20-21, 2024

Time: 0800-1700

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This two-day course is focused on PROACTIVE investigations of gang members and associates.

Day One – Intel Gathering, Debriefing, Informants & Surveillance:

The first day will concentrate on intelligence sources and will include a GUEST SPEAKER who is a former gang “Shotcaller” who was debriefed and recruited by law enforcement as an intel source. Gathering intel from social media, gang member interviews and debriefs, cultivating and developing sources, avoiding common manipulation tactics, and the use of surveillance will be examined. Non-traditional investigation techniques and intelligence sources will also be discussed.

Day Two – Warrants, Wire Traps, Gang Enhancements, and Case Prep:

The second day will focus on the legal foundations for preparing gang cases to facilitate successful prosecution. Effective case analysis and management, operational planning pitfalls, elements of gang enhancements (AB 333), and the fundamentals of articulating probable cause and satisfying the specific requirements for a gang search warrant and wiretap will be covered. Additional topics will include, often overlooked elements with case reports, establishing predicate acts, preparing for the preliminary hearing and trial, and ultimately providing expert testimony.

Law Enforcement & Corrections Only – Credentials are Required to Attend

INSTRUCTORS:

All of the instructors have extensive experience in gang investigations and are recognized gang experts. Instructors include Gang Unit Investigators, Gang Unit Supervisors and Deputy District Attorneys who prosecute gang cases.
