CLASS DESCRIPTION:

The “Homicide School” classes are open to anyone in Law Enforcement interested in learning about investigating homicides and how to affect successful prosecutions. The instructors are veteran Detectives for local agencies and Deputy District Attorneys currently employed and assigned to Detective Divisions. The school is divided into eight modules that are 4 hours each for a total of 32 hours. A certificate of completion signed by the Director of the LA HIDTA will be awarded to those completing all modules. Certificates will also be issued for completion of each 4 hour module.

The modules cover topics such as: homicide case management, leading and delegating, command staff and case management conflict, crime scenes, perishable evidence, scene explanation in court, child and elder deaths, fetus viability, care giver statements, case filing, homicide law, self defense issues, evidentiary problems, Perkins Ops, U/C selection, arson investigations, motives, filicide, court prep, case organization, tracking discovery, witness co-ordination, OIS, and much more. Whether you are a new or veteran Officer, Agent or Deputy, these classes will advance your investigative skills and knowledge. Classes will be fast paced with little down time.

This school was formatted to give students the best and most useful tools to aid in solving cases. This program will be offered to law enforcement agencies across the country through the national HIDTA network. We are committed to reducing the impact of transnational organized crime and the international narcotics trade. Hope you'll join us.
