ON-LINE TRAINING

Gangs and Narcotics

August 06, 2020    0900-1200

Where the Overlap and the Expertise is Required

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This class will address the nuts and bolts of handling drug cases within the context of gangs and the application of a gang allegation. It will include all the criteria necessary to prove the gang allegation, and what it takes to be a gang expert. Further, it will address the difficulty of proving sales cases in today’s world and discuss strategies to overcome those hurdles. When gang members engage in drug dealing, two types of expertise are required. Wiretaps often generate cases involving both areas of expertise. This class will explore those situations, as well as other scenarios, and help you navigate through them.

TOPICS COVERED:
- Breaking down 186.22 PC California “Gang Sentencing” Enhancement Law
- Testifying as a gang expert
- Recent trends in Narcotics
- Overlap of gangs and narcotics
- Wiretaps and other narcotics / gangs operations
- Overcoming hurdles of narc expert in today’s climate

INSTRUCTOR: Terri Perez has been a Deputy District Attorney for 26 years, and has been assigned as the Chief of Narcotics for the past three years. Prior to this assignment, she served as the Assistant Chief of the East County Branch for four and a half years, where she was responsible for handling all informant/1040 issues. She worked in the Gang Prosecution Unit from 2005-2009, handling gang crimes involving robberies, assaults and murders. Before that, she filed Gang Injunctions against criminal street gangs from 1997-2005. She has experience prosecuting Narcotics cases involving large scale narcotics operations, wiretaps and recently implemented overdose death prosecution protocols within her office. She has taught Advanced Gang Prosecution and Basic Narcotics for ICI, Informants and Overdose Death Prosecutions for CNOA, and teaches quarterly for the San Diego Sheriff’s Office on Handling Informants. She received the CNOA Prosecutor of the Year Award in 2019.
