

THE PATROL SEARCH WARRANT

Class description: The Patrol Search Warrant is a class designed to teach the basics of search warrants. Students will be taken, step by step, through the fundamentals of search warrant writing. This includes search warrant case law, understanding when a warrant is appropriate, and creating an affiant statement. Multiple examples of warrants will be discussed throughout the class. POST Plan NA certified.

Who should attend? Patrol officers, entry level detectives, detectives looking to improve their warrant writing skills, and Deputy District Attorneys.

Location: SD-LECC
4181 Ruffin Road
San Diego, CA 92123

Date/Time: Tuesday, October 1, 2024
0800—1700 hours

Cost: $175

Registration link:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-patrol-search-warrant-100124-san-diego-tickets-811160983337>

Instructor: Detective Francis Hardiman

Detective Hardiman, was a law enforcement officer for over 30 years. Prior to retiring in 2024, he was assigned to homicide for 10 years. He was a detective for over 22 years. In that time he has written well over 1000 search warrants.

Contact: fxh269@hotmail.com

310-850-3929