

Courtroom Testimony

Free 2-Hour Webinar

Tuesday, September 17, 2024

2:00-4:00 pm ET

About this Webinar: This two-hour webinar will focus on training officers on the three key components required for a guilty verdict: investigating cases beyond a reasonable doubt, accurately documenting the investigation, and professionally presenting the case to the jury. Topics will include tips for investigating cases, how to “paint a picture” during direct examination and include a discussion about the most common defense attorney tactics and how to address them during testimony.

About the Presenter: Scott Rosenwasser is currently an Assistant State Attorney with the Pinellas-Pasco County State Attorney’s Office in Clearwater, Florida. He has been an Assistant State Attorney for over 28 years and is currently the Pasco County Coordinator and Division Director for East Pasco County. He is an adjunct instructor with St. Petersburg College where he teaches two paralegal courses: Criminal Litigation and Criminal Law and Procedure. He is an adjunct instructor at the Hillsborough County Community College and Pasco-Hernando State College where he teaches both Courtroom Testimony and Investigations as part of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement’s police academy curriculum and advanced training program.

Presented by: The Florida National Guard Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training (MCTFT) program and St. Petersburg College.

Cost: Tuition-free through MCTFT
