

DIGNITARY PROTECTION COURSE
(POST# 9260-33020-24001)
Monday, November 18– Friday, November 22, 2024
(0800-1700 hours)

The California Department of Justice, Advanced Training Center, will present this course at the Advanced Training Center, 4949 Broadway, Room B-222, Sacramento, CA 95820.

Course Description: This 40-hour course provides instruction on developing and implementing a dignitary security protection plan and participating as a member of a protection detail. Curriculum addresses such issues as: identifying threats; organizing and operating a motorcade; providing in-transit and site security; and identifying individual team member responsibilities. Instruction includes both classroom lecture and field exercises. Students will plan, conduct and participate in a roleplay of a motorcade scenario at the conclusion of the course. This course provides updated legislative content of Penal Code Section 835a.

Who Should Attend: California Law Enforcement Officers who are members of Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Teams, Intelligence Units, Protection Details or other units that provide protection to government officials, dignitaries, or witnesses or anyone assigned responsibilities to develop dignitary security plans for their agencies.

Course Objectives: This course provides the students with the basic knowledge and skills necessary to plan operations involving the protection of dignitaries, e.g., public officials or other "high profile" persons, and/or to participate as a member in a dignitary security detail.

Pre-Registration is Required: Only individuals pre-registered with CONFIRMATIONS and PHOTO LAW ENFORCEMENT ID will be admitted. To register for this class, please login to <https://atc.guiweb.com>. Please be advised that multiple "no-shows" to these classes may jeopardize future enrolment in ATC classes. If you have any questions, please contact Tricia Nelson at (916) 210-4442 or tricia.nelson@doj.ca.gov

Additional Information: Although 40 hours of POST credit will be given, this is a POST N/A reimbursable course. Tuition is $600.00 for all attendees, payable by check or money order to CA Dept. of Justice.
