Narcotics 101

Virtual - Free

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This class is designed for anyone interested in narcotics cases or anyone looking for a refresher in narcotics. The class will cover identifying narcotics, charges, changes in the law, trends/patterns, and societal issues related to narcotics. Participants should come with questions and be prepared to share/discuss trends and patterns in their jurisdictions. The class will also address some common issues encountered in these investigations and prosecutions. The class is designed for peace officers and prosecutors.

INSTRUCTOR: Matt De Moura, Yolo County Deputy District Attorney, has been a prosecutor since 2011, and has handled gang, firearms, narcotics, Three Strikes, and homicide cases during that time. He is currently cross designated as a Special Assistant United States Attorney with the Sacramento Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDEF) and serves as a HIDTA Initiative Commander. He is an Academy instructor and has taught Search and Seizure for several years. He regularly reviews State and Federal search warrants and advises on search and seizure issues.
