Qualifying as an Expert Witness in Court

Virtual - Free

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This class will cover relevant law about becoming a court-recognized expert for preliminary hearings and trials. Prosecutors and peace officers will learn what questions to ask, where experts are likely to be challenged, important qualifications, and how to develop your CV and hero sheet.

INSTRUCTOR: Matt De Moura, Yolo County Deputy District Attorney, has been a prosecutor since 2011, and has handled gang, firearms, narcotics, Three Strikes, and homicide cases during that time. He is currently cross designated as a Special Assistant United States Attorney with the Sacramento Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) and serves as a HIDTA Initiative Commander. He is an Academy instructor and has taught Search and Seizure for several years. He regularly reviews State and Federal search warrants and advises on search and seizure issues.
