

What to Expect from a Police Background Check

One of the most difficult parts of being hired to work for a law enforcement agency is passing the police background check. Even if you have passed the background investigation for one agency, this does not mean you will pass at another. Our training course will give you all of the inside details that go into making the decision about who gets selected for the next steps in the hiring process and who does not. This webinar will also be recorded for play-back on demand if you are unable to make the live session.

Learn:

- How to complete your paperwork and who you should list as references
- How long the process is and things that slow it down
- Common disqualifiers and mistakes not to make
- What to do if you did not pass
