

National Domestic Communications Assistance Center and the DEA present

DEA - Social Media Investigations (virtual)

A three-day course that will guide students through practical exercises of advanced Internet searching of major and emerging social networking platforms. Additional Instruction will include metadata embedded in various document types and how it can further their investigations.

September 3-5, 2024

09:00am -5:00pm PDT

POC: Walter O'Neal
wwoneal@fbi.gov / (540) 361-4629

Course Objectives:

- ◆ Introduction to operational security
- ◆ Advanced search techniques
- ◆ Evaluating websites
- ◆ Working with images and documents
- ◆ X (formerly known as Twitter) search, Facebook, Snapchat, Reddit, YouTube, and LinkedIn, TikTok and other emerging social media apps
- ◆ Automation in searching

*Registration closes on August 19, 2024. Registration does not guarantee enrollment.
You will be notified of enrollment status by August 20, 2024.*

Questions: email AskNDCAC@fbi.gov or call 855-306-3222