Lt. Schuelke has been employed with the San Bernardino Police Department for 28 years. He has worked various assignments, through his career to include, Narcotics, Narcotics K-9, Crimes Against Children Detective, and Homicide Detective. He was promoted to Sergeant in 2006. He is currently assigned as the lieutenant in charge of the Special Investigations Bureau, overseeing SWAT, Narcotics and gang investigations.

He has supervised various proactive/specialized details such as Crime Impact Team, District Resource Officers, and Patrol Division. He was assigned as the Vice/Narcotics Supervisor from November 2012 to January of 2017. On December 2, 2015, members of the Narcotics Unit were involved in identifying, locating and capturing the two suspects responsible for the terrorist attack on the Inland Regional Center in San Bernardino, CA perpetrated by Syed Rizwan Farook and Tashfeen Mailik.

The instructors will provide an overview of the perpetrators planning, attack and eventual encounter with SBPD’s Narcotics Unit. The class will end with a “Lessons Learned” debrief.

Topics:
- Syed & Tashfeen meeting, planning and events leading to attack of IRC.
- Survival Victims talk about attack and life afterwards.
- SBPD Narcotics Unit contact with perpetrators.
- Lessons learned and debrief.
- A MUST for Supervisors and Management
