COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an 8-hour class designed to teach officers and investigators the art of interview and interrogation. The instructor will show students a proven program on building rapport and obtaining confessions.

This class is a must for all sworn personnel working in law enforcement. These techniques can be used from calls for service to complex, multiple suspect investigations.

Topics:

- There is a difference between interview and interrogation.
- 7 steps of an interview.
- Lie detection.
- 6 stages of an interrogation.
- Video examples will be shown.

INSTRUCTOR

Sergeant Jennifer Burkhart

Sergeant Jennifer Burkhart has been a deputy sheriff with the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department since 2003. She is currently assigned as the sergeant in charge of the Sheriff's Department Crimes Against Children's Detail. Jennifer has worked various investigative assignments and has over five years of specialized investigations. She has been the lead instructor for the Interview and Interrogation course at the Sheriff's Department Advanced Officer Training facility and has instructed students from agencies all over California. Jennifer's expertise has led her to train law enforcement members, military police, and district attorneys throughout the country.
