

CIVILIAN LEADERSHIP COURSE FOR PUBLIC SAFETY PERSONNEL

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CORONA POLICE DEPARTMENT

GOAL

This interactive course is designed specifically for civilian public safety supervisors, managers and those aspiring to be leaders within their organization. The goal of this training is to provide participants the opportunity to develop skills and strategies to become engaging and effective supervisors and leaders in their organization.

This training will explore leadership, leadership styles, essential elements of building morale, understanding the importance of leadership and the role supervisors play in building effective teams and more.

PRESENTERS

Chief Charlie Celano, Tustin Police Department (ret)

Charlie Celano is a recently retired police chief and has 27 years of law enforcement experience, including over 18 years in supervisory, management and command level positions within the organization. Charlie has taught law enforcement professionals throughout the country and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy Class #258.

Deputy Chief Paul Garaven, Tustin Police Department (ret)

Paul Garaven is a retired veteran of law enforcement with 30 years of dedicated service. Much of Paul's career consisted of supervising and managing personnel across a broad spectrum. In addition, Paul served as an adjunct faculty member of the Criminal Justice Training Center at Golden West College for more than a decade, where he played a vital role in training hundreds of police officers.
