Let MCA help you develop the knowledge and skills necessary to create a work environment where employees will thrive and how to effectively deal with those employees who are unable or unwilling to perform. Our practical, common sense techniques, gets results without the abuse of power or employee rights. You can hold employees accountable for their job performance and behaviors at work and gain their respect at the same time. You will walk away from this workshop with tools you can use on your very first day back at work.

In this workshop you will learn how to:

- Avoid the seven leadership mistakes that demotivate subordinates
- Develop performance standards that make your expectations clear
- Provide effective performance feedback and write meaningful performance evaluations
- Assert your authority while respecting employee's rights
- Understand and apply disciplinary due process
- Confront difficult and resistant employees without losing
