

CRISIS INTERVENTION & BEHAVIORAL HEALTH TRAINING

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE TORRANCE POLICE DEPARTMENT

OVERVIEW

Law enforcement officers are frequently called upon to manage incidents involving people with mental illness. This interactive training will cover mental illness, stigma, substance use disorders, developmental disabilities and more. The class will also feature a guest speaker, someone living with a mental illness who will share his experiences of living with a mental illness.

This Training satisfies Senate Bill 29 (SB29) requiring all Field Training Officers (FTO's) to have at least 8 hours of crisis intervention behavioral health training.

PRESENTERS

Chief Charlie Celano, Tustin Police Department (ret)

Charlie Celano is a recently retired police chief and has 27 years of law enforcement experience. Charlie has taught law enforcement professionals throughout the country and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy Class #258.

Dr. Heather Williams, Premier First Responder Psychological Services

After spending 14 years working in victim services and responding to critical incidents at the request of law enforcement, Heather was hired by the OC Sheriff's Department as the Regional Peer Support Coordinator. During this time, Heather completed her doctorate in Psychology, got licensed and started a new chapter. As the founder of Premier First Responder Psychological Services she is committed to helping public safety and their families walk through and heal from life's adversities and traumas.
